

New England District Ranger Photo Contest 2002

Best photo overall and first prize for Interpretation - Joe Faloretti, Lower Connecticut River Basin

First Place Winners

Landscapes - Heather Morse, North Hartland Lake

Wildlife - Heather Morse, North Hartland Lake

Recreation - Jeff Phillips, Birch Hill Dam

Around our Projects - Jason Robinson, Tully Lake

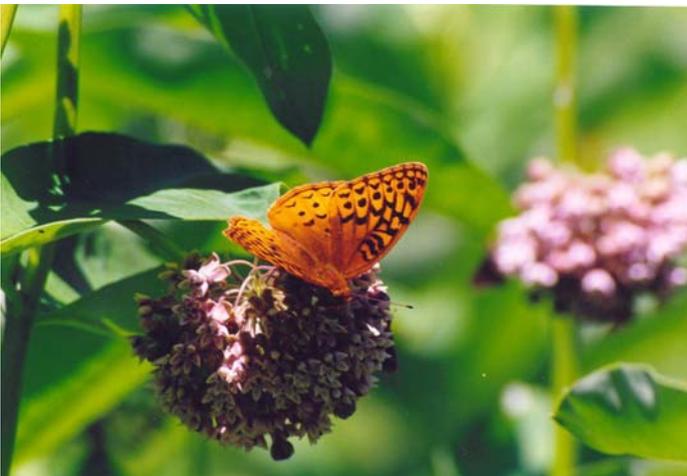

Second Place Winners

Interpretation - Jeff Phillips, Birch Hill Dam

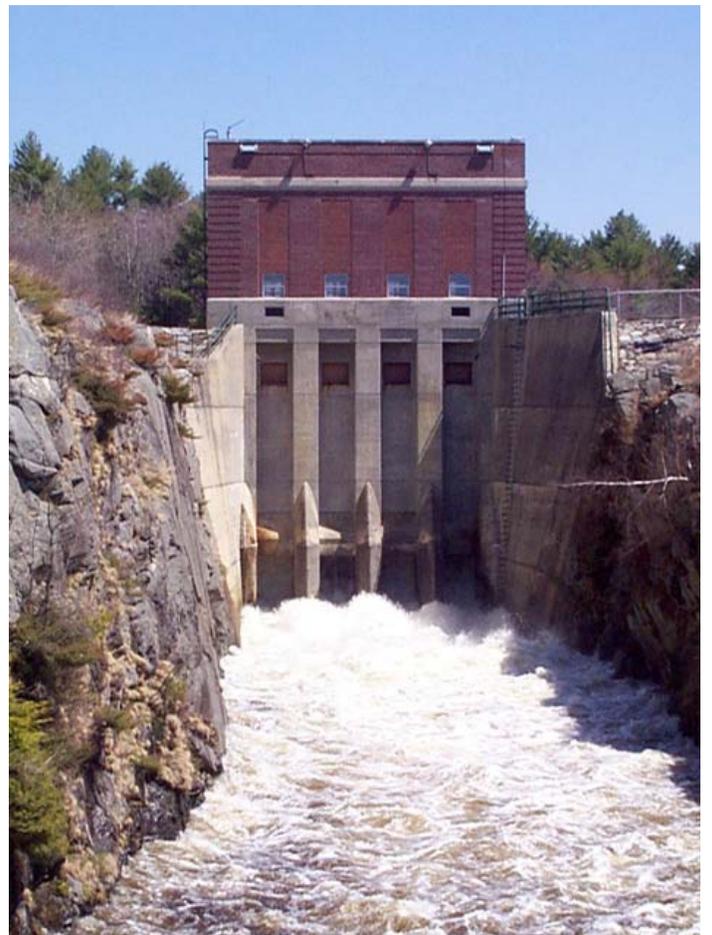

Landscapes - Chris Cogley, Hop Brook Lake

Wildlife - Chris Cogley, Hop Brook Lake

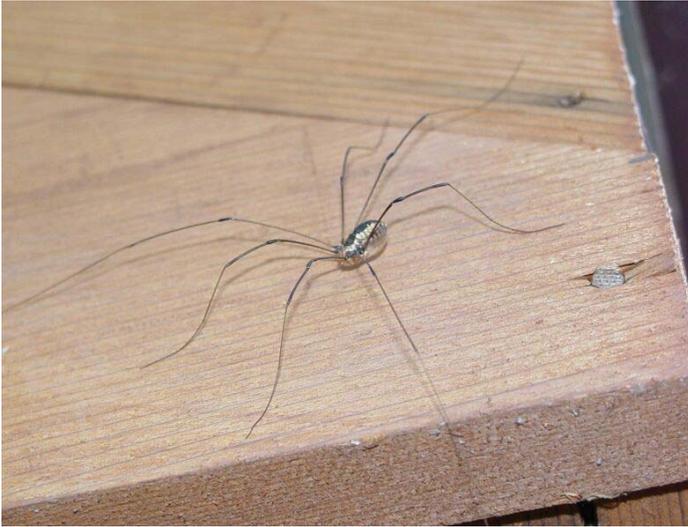

Recreation - Mike Hayward, Hopkinton Lake

Around our Projects - Jeff Phillips, Birch Hill Dam

Third Place Winners

Wildlife - Jason Robinson, Tully Lake

Landscapes - Jason Robinson, Tully Lake

Interpretation - Diana Errico-Topolski, Hop Brook Lake

Recreation - Jason Robinson, Tully Lake

Around our Projects - Heather Morse, North Hartland Lake

Honorable Mentions

Interpretation - Chris Massa, Hop Brook Lake

Recreation - Betty Webb, North Hartland Lake

Around our Projects - Heather Morse, North Hartland Lake

Landscapes - Jessie Smith, North Hartland Lake

Wildlife - Heather Morse, North Hartland Lake

Panel of Judges:

Ann Marie Harvie

Mark McInerney

Will Rogers

Clerk:

Rick Magee

The Judges' Criteria:

- Appropriateness - Does it illustrate an aspect of our work or project?
- Composition - Is the photograph well composed?
-
- Clarity - Is the photograph technically correct?
- Appeal - Is the picture eye-catching and attractive?

The Categories:

Recreation - Showing visitors enjoying themselves at USACE New England lakes, lands, & canal.

Interpretation - Rangers interacting with visitors

- On-site Interpretive Services
- Outreach Programs

Wildlife - Natural Resource Management and Animals on USACE Property

- Animals from arachnids to mammals
- Habitats & management

Around Our Projects - Scenic views of facilities and structures at our parks and dams in New England.

Landscapes - Vistas and close-ups of the scenic beauty of our New England projects.