

Errata

April 17, 2017

Field Indicators of Hydric Soils in the United States Version 8.0

Page 21

F3.—Depleted Matrix

Change

“a. 5 cm (2 inches) if the 5 cm starts at a depth ≤ 10 cm (4 inches) of the soil”

to

“a. 5 cm (2 inches) if the 5 cm starts at a depth ≤ 10 cm (4 inches) from the soil surface”

Page 25

F18.—Reduced Vertic

Change

“a. Is the dominant (60 percent or more) condition of a layer at least 10 cm (4 inches) thick starting at a depth ≤ 20 cm (8 inches); or at least 5 cm (2 inches) thick starting at ≤ 10 cm (4 inches) from the mineral or muck soil surface”

to

“a. Is the dominant (60 percent or more) condition of a layer at least 10 cm (4 inches) thick starting at a depth of ≤ 30 cm (12 inches); or at least 5 cm (2 inches) thick starting at a depth of 15 cm (6 inches) from the mineral or muck soil surface”

Page 34

Figure 44

Switch the captions. The caption in the figure in red should be in the blue box and the caption in blue should be in the red box.

