1. Are fees or donations to be collected from the public or participants? If “yes”, what are the amounts and for what purpose will they be assessed? What are the expected gross revenues? For what purpose will the collected funds be used? You will be required to submit a cost analysis after your event.
2. Will the event involve vendors? If “yes” list each individually. Food vendors need to present a board of health permit to USACE.
3. How will access to and from the event area be controlled and non-participating vehicle and boat traffic be directed around or through the event area? Where will the majority of vehicle parking be located? Where is your main event staging area to be located?

4. Will restricted access to the event be required? If “yes”, what circumstances or conditions of the event require that access be restricted?

5. What are the time requirements for set-up and take-down for the event? Are you bringing in portable toilets? Where will they be located?

6. Will first-aid stations, ambulances, safety vessels, or other safety measures be required? If “yes”, what measures will be taken to provide the needed services and equipment?

7. Will support equipment (i.e. buoys, temporary course markers, bleachers or traffic control devices) be required? If “yes”, list the equipment and when they will be set up and taken down.

8. Will there be any storage requirements needed prior to or following the event?

9. Are permits from other governmental agencies required? If “yes”, list agencies and types of permits.

10. The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that each individual asked or required to furnish personal information be advised of the following:

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 552a.

Purpose: To provide a contact in connection with special event activities.

Routine Uses: Special use permit is issued under the direction of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. The names and addresses of those who obtain the Special use permit are not reported but are kept on file at the project office to provide a point of contact in case of emergency. This information is not maintained alphabetically or by any other personal identifier. Disclosure of information is voluntary. Failure to provide the requested information will preclude issuance of a Special use permit.
